

I do not support allowing passengers to use cell phones while the aircraft is airborne. Once landed and taxiing (as today) is adequate. The noise levels on the aircraft would be horrific to passengers and could interfere with communications being heard from the flight deck and the flight attendants regarding the aircraft and passenger safety. Please do not permit cell phone usage during flight.